- This program applies to certified dryland acres planted with NexGen® cotton seed.
- Eligible cotton acres must be covered under the Multi Peril Crop Insurance Program.
- Drought is the primary cause of damage under the Multi Peril Crop Insurance Program.
- Growers must use sound farm management practices, and make every attempt to establish a stand and produce a crop.
- Growers seeking a Drought Refund should contact their dealer before tilling any field associated with a Drought Refund request.
- Americot reserves the right inspect all claims while the crop is still in the field, and has the right to reject without settlement any claim not inspected by an Americot sales representative.
- Dryland acres that have yield reduction attributable to hail, wind, blowing sand, flood, disease, pests, or any other reason are not eligible for settlement under this program.
- Americot has the right to reject without settlement any claims received after November 15, 2017 (East Texas) or January 15, 2018 (remaining Southwest geography).
- Factory overtreatments are not eligible to be reimbursed under the Americot® Drought Program.

Claim Process:

- Contact your dealer about claim.
- Dealer or Americot sales representative verifies the claim.
- Dealer completes & sends Drought Claim Form (to be found at www.americot.com) prior to November 15, 2017 (East Texas) or January 15, 2018 (remaining Southwest geography) deadlines.
- Settlement for seed (refund) will be issued via check made out to the dealer and grower and mailed to the dealer.
- With seamless pricing in place, Americot is responsible for the whole claim. No need to contact Monsanto.

Documentation Needed:

- Americot Drought Claim Form
- Federal Crop Insurance - Production worksheet (detailing drought as the cause of loss on both harvested and not harvested acres)
- FSA 578 (certifying acres as dryland or non-irrigated)
- Production Record (ASCS 503) if harvested.
